Theme: Current situation of flood affected people in Bangladesh
CI theme: (Write about the semester theme 'Rational Choice Theory' in your language.) (50-150 words)	Rational choice theory is a useful method to examine decision-making processes in a range of contexts, including economics, politics, social sciences, academic life, and personal life. Every decision we make is based on rational choice theory. We work through this notion by prioritizing our limitations, rewards, and positive and negative impacts on our life.	01
Group/Individual theme: (What was your theme? Why did you take this theme?) (150-250 words)	My focus was the recent struggle of flood victims around Bangladesh and the unity of humanity. I chose this theme for our wall graffiti because it was August and our country had sustained considerable losses as a result of heavy rainfall and India's intentional flood conspiracy. And this occurrence made a strong impression on us. India opened its dam gates, causing excessive water flow in certain of our districts, including Feni, Comilla, Noakhali, Khagrachhari, and others. Many people died, and some flood victims are suffering from numerous diseases, as well as a food and water crisis. Many students volunteer to assist flood victims, putting their lives at risk. I wanted to show people's pain and unity in this crucial situation, as well as how they defend one another and also stand for flood affected animals. The struggle they encountered, as well as their use of social media at the time. Also, how humanity's unity defeats the devil's scheme.	02

Artwork

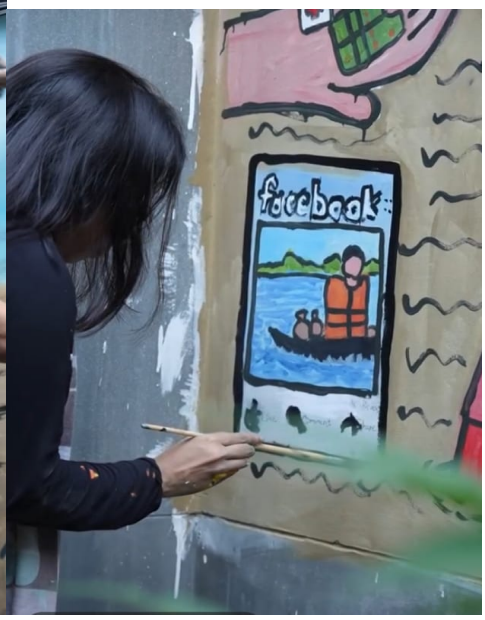

Layout & Plan: (Attach the image of your layout) (Why and what texts and images did you want to paint on all?) (150-250 words)	 BANGLADESH ARMY AS SUNNAH FOUNDATION BANGLADESH NAVY This was the layout of our wall graffiti. Firstly, we draw the outline of a dam which symbolizes the Indian conspiracy. Then we draw the hand with flood relief such as food,	02 water, medicine, life jacket etc. On the other side we draw boats with volunteers passing the reliefs one to another. Houses and trees are floating on the water. Flood victims are floating on the water. Helicopter is flying in the sky to distribute flood relief. Also on the top we wrote our incidents month slogan which is 'একতাই বল' and August. All these things we draw on paper and color it with HIMI gouache paint. Secondly, we use adobe photoshop to outline the water and insert the android phone from google to represent the uses of social media during that crisis. In the end, we insert the logos of those organizations who donated financially and came forward to help the victims such as Bkash, Bangladesh Army, Bangladesh Navy and As Sunnah Foundation. Thus, we completed our final layout for the graffiti.

Production: (Please write about the working history of your wall art from the beginning, including materials you used, the place you worked at, any obstacles you faced, any improvisation you did, and the result came out at the end.) (Please attach some images of the time while you were working.) (300-400 words)	It was Friday 06 September 2024, 10:00 AM and we went to our destination which was Robindro Shorobor at Dhanmondi. My teammates started our mission at 10:30 AM. First, we clean the wall with sand paper. Then we put the white color on the wall as a 1st layer of base color. Then we wait for a while until our 1st layer gets dry. We basically used Zinc Oxide, Plastic Oxide color and 8" 12" 20" and 50" size brushes for the graffiti. When the 1st layer completely dried, then we put the 2nd layer of white color on the wall. Again, we waited for the 2nd layer to dry. Then I started to draw the outlines of our artwork with pencil according to our layout. When we finished our outline then we went to collect our other colors as we needed. We collected the primary colors such as black, red, blue and yellow. In the beginning, we color the humans and animals who were volunteers and flood victims. We colored the jackets of the volunteers with orange, lime green and used other types of color on the victims like pink, maroon, green, yellow, sky blue etc. Then we colored the big hand with skin color. We struggled a lot when we colored the dam with grey color and painted the sky with blue color because it was very far from our heights but still we managed to do it. Then we color the facebook newsfeed, then we color the main thing which is flood water with a mixer of many colors and get our perfect flood water color. Then finally, we give the detailed border outlines with black color.And lastly, we wrote our group name which is Farzi Artists as our signature. At 5:00 PM, we successfully finished our wall graffiti artwork. It was almost 7 hours we worked with full dedication.	04

Display: (Where was the wall, how was that place, who can see your art, was any other wall better for your art, and why?) (150 -250 words) (Please attach some images/screenshots of your final work and show)	Like I discussed before, we chose a wall for the graffiti at Dhanmondi Robindro Shorobor e the lake. So the place is very open and beautiful. Anyone can visit there freely at any time. were some other wall graffitis which were done by our classmates. They were unique and iful because of their perfect art and color combination and shadings. I would say that in my ective our artwork could be better from others because maybe we could visualize the theme uniquely. We did the common artwork but tried to include each and every detail which is d to the August flood incident. From cruel nature to political conspiracies, uses of social , all we showed it on our artwork. But still, I'm proud of our artwork because after so many gles we successfully completed it. Personally, It was not only a final project for me, it was a experience for me. I explored myself through this wall graffiti. As it was my first time wall graffiti and I did my best.  	02
Feedback (Please show your art to 5 people and interview them. Please ask the same 5 questions to each person to fill up the table below. 4. Does this artwork look common or does it look extraordinary to you? If it looks unique or creative to you, what kind of uniqueness do you find in this work?	This artwork looks common to me because there are some common themes which I can easily understand that it's all about the flood struggles and unity of human being in Bangladesh that's what the artist meant.
5. I wanted to tell you that unity is strength in any worse situation (একতাই বল). Have you found this message in this artwork? If my message could be more visible in it, please suggest it to me.	Yes, I found the message and it's clearly visible to me.
Realization	07

(Have you got all the feedback from the audience as you expected? Did the viewers get your message? Please explain the reasons why they got your message or why not. What have you realized about your succession at the end? How should you do the wall art if you want to do it again? What were the strengths of your work? Why? What were your faults? How can you avoid your faults next time? What is your thought about this project?) (400-500 words)	Yes, I have got all the feedback from the audience as I expected. Yes. My viewers got the message. They got my message because of my clear visual artwork. They find clues such as the opening of dams art which symbolize the enemies conspiracies. The clear art of people helping the affected victims with food, medicine etc and rescuing them from the flood which symbolize the unity of humanity, Houses and trees are floating into the flood water it represents flood as a deadliest natural disaster. Facebook Newsfeed shows the positive and negative uses of social media. At the end, I can proudly say that I have successfully completed this artwork with full dedication. Also got some satisfying reviews from my audience. They easily got my point. If I get a chance to do wall art again, I will definitely be more sincere than before. And I will do more experiments on it. I will generate more ideas on it. My biggest strengths were my confidence, dedication, leadership and creativity. Because I was boldly confident about my plan, I also worked hard with full determination and it was a big challenge for me to complete a huge wall within 7 hours. And I lead my team to cooperate with me to successfully execute the plan. They also helped me with full dedication from the beginning to the end. If I talk about our faults during this wall art process was we didn't take our food on time so we were physically weak for a while and missed some detailed to draw such as a helicopter and the logos of organization which donate and raised funds to help the flood victims, this were on our layout but unfortunately, we failed to include it on the final wall. Well, It's okay. We have learnt a lesson from our mistakes. In future, we will be more cautious about these mistakes. So, In the end, my thoughts about this project are very satisfying and enjoyable. As this was a wall art project. And we also had to write a report on this wall art. Meanwhile, we should not chase for excellent marks on projects or exams. It's all about being good human beings so that we can stand for each other in any kind of circumstances or fight against our enemies. That's what this project and our faculty taught us. We are grateful to have these types of opportunities to experience and explore our abilities, acknowledgment, creativity and ideas.
